Jan O'Shea - Intro to Lindy Hop

Jan O'Shea is regarded by most as Australia's No.1 Lady of Swing and was publicly dubbed by the late great Frankie Manning who travelled to Australia for 10 years to workshop and teach with Jan right up until his passing in 2009, as "Australia's Queen of Swing." Jan commenced dancing in 1954 and by 1957 was the Australian Champion of Jitterbug which was the final Jitterbug competition in Australia until the revival of Lindy-hop/Jitterbug in the 1990s of which Jan was an integral and influential part of. Several times during the period 1959 – 1964 she was an Australian Champion of Rock n Roll dancing.

In 1998, after 42 years dancing, she achieved what no other competitive dancer in the world had achieved by winning the Open Invitational Harlem and in 1999 won the Australasian Open Invitational Championships in Lindy-hop/Jitterbug, Harlem/Slow Swing and Rock and Roll.

Jan is the first fully qualified Rock n Roll dance teacher in Australia and she is currently Head of the Rock and Roll Faculty for FATD (Federal Association Teachers of Dance) and Head Adjudicator at the Pan Pacific Rock & Roll and Swing Dance Championships.

Peter and Christine Rhodes - Intermediate Rock and Roll

Peter and Christine began dancing in 2002 and by 2004 were dancing competitively. Currently still competing, they are Pan Pacific Champions in Rock & Roll, Lindy Hop, The Harlem, Freestyle (lifts) and have been undefeated Triples Champions in 5 states of Australia. They are currently undertaking their FATD accreditation.
